Sponsoring Organisations

- Jewish Community Council of Victoria
- Victorian Council of Churches
- Islamic Council of Victoria

JCMA is supported by a wide range of faith organizations.

Why a JCMA?

JCMA was established to provide opportunities for people of each of the Abrahamic faiths to explore interfaith dialogue within Australia's multicultural community

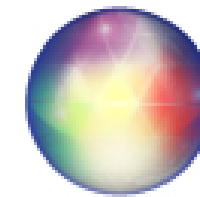

Who is it for?

JCMA conferences are intended for anyone from one of the three Abrahamic faiths. Places for families with preschool children are available.

It is expected that participants will be in residence for the full period of the conference.

Accommodation

Either single or shared accommodation is available. All rooms have basins.

Registration & selection procedure

- 1. The number of participants is limited to 75 people. An appropriate balance of participants from all three faith traditions is sought, representing a wide spread of experiences and communities.
- 2. JCMA anticipates that there may be more applications than there are places available, in which case a selection procedure will be applied.
- 3. JCMA seeks a balance of lay men and women, clergy, academics, those working in support or welfare roles and tertiary students
- 4. Application forms are available from the JCMA Office (03 9650 3294) or from the JCMA website (www.jcma.org.au).
- 5. A $50 refundable deposit is required with the application. Deposits will be refunded to unsuccessful applicants & are also refundable for cancellations until 24 June 2011.
- 6. Applications are requested by Friday 3rd June 2011. Initial places will be allocated and applicants notified in the second week of June.
- 7. Successful applicants will be required to confirm their registration by payment of the registration fee within 14 days of notification. If the fee is not received within this time the place may be offered to other applicants. Late offers of places may therefore be issued to those who were unsuccessful on the first application.
- 8. If there are still places available after the first round of offers, late applications will be considered.

The Conference will include

- The hospitality of God: the spiritual dimension of hospitality.
- Studies in the sacred texts of our three faiths on the theme of hospitality.
- Our hospitality to each other
 - in prayer and worship
 - in small reflection groups
 - in eating together
 - in shared leisure time
- The boundaries of hospitality for faith communities: How we welcome each other. What are the limits?
- How people of our three faiths show God's hospitality to the wider community, to refugees and asylum seekers, to the homeless, to the stranger etc.
- All-inclusive Conference Fees:
 - Single room: $355 per person
 - Shared room: $325 per person
 - Couple: $650
- A concessional rate may be available
- Child care fees on application

If this does not meet your needs, please request:

- Strictly Kosher meals
- Vegetarian meals.
