

The Garden at the End of the World

A documentary on Afghanistan
by Gary Caganoff

Simon Moyle, Baptist Minister and peace activist, just returned from Afghanistan, will introduce the film.

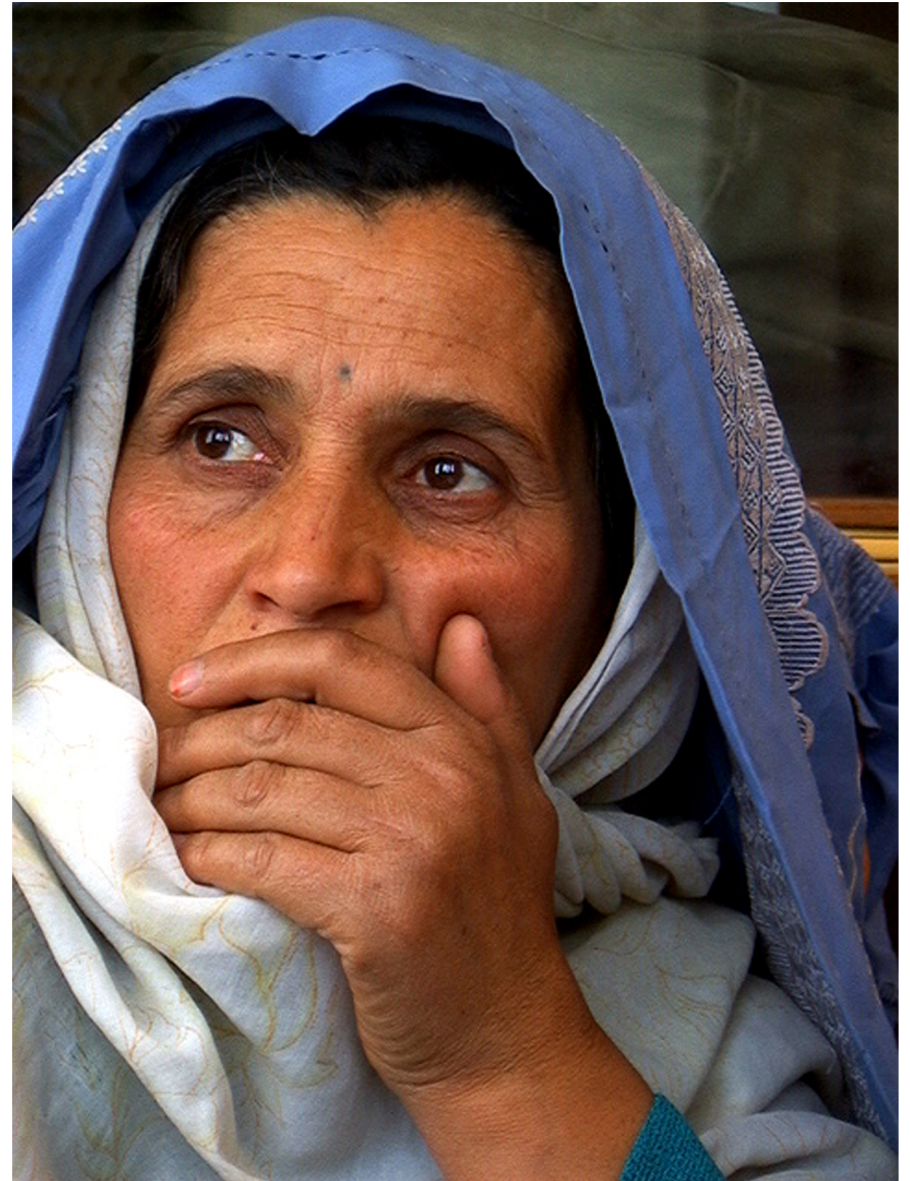

Tuesday 19 April, 7–9pm
(entry by donation)
Church of All Nations, Carlton
180 Palmerston St (cnr Drummond St)
T: 9347 7077

Soren Keirkegaard writes, “Sermons should not be preached in churches. They harm Christianity and alter its very nature to be remote from reality, instead of being heard in the midst of real life ...”

War in Afghanistan is in the midst of real life. The Easter message of new life and peace needs to be heard by all.

You are invited to attend this special screening of The Garden at the End of the World.

www.thegardenattheendoftheworld.info

Proceeds to Mahboba's Promise www.mahbobaspromise.org